SOS was discussed. Member volunteers are required to establish an SOS Organising Committee – we will need volunteers to set up the display on the Thursday or work in the crèche or work the front door ($5.00 entry) or sell raffle tickets or facilitate plant sales table or facilitate new member applications.

Plant of the Night

Plant of the Night Open Class was awarded to David Bullock for his Paphiopedilum insigne orchid and Novice Class was awarded to Chao Ping Li for her Dendrochilum luzonense (orange) orchid. Congratulations and Well Done! Chao Ping informed members that the secret to her success with the Dendrochilum luzonense was its location outside near the hot water heater, where it gets warmth and some steam.

The People's Choice Award went to David Bullock for his Paphiopedilum insigne orchid – Well Done David! Raffle of the Night

The raffle of the night winners were Ross Trethewy (Ticket D95); Elizabeth Ying (Ticket A95) and Ian Kaplin (Ticket A73) – prizes to be awarded next meeting.

Repotting/Back bulbs / Back Cutting

Repotting in colder months was discussed and should be avoided wherever possible and done only if upsizing pots. Do not trim roots in Winter.
